EXTREME

Irregularities in the Movement of Prices All Day.

By Associated Press.

New York, April 22.—There was great variety in speculation and extreme irregularities in the movement of prices all day and there was a resumption of the feverish tone which had broken in on the present extended advance in prices at various times. Very heavy profit taking was going on in stocks which have showed strength recently, but the bulls had the situation fairly well in hand through the early part of the day and the process of sniffling speculation from one set of stocks to another seemed to be going on in a normal manner.

The weight of the profit taking became so formidable and violent and the manipulation of stocks, by which it was sought to sustain prices, became so palpable that the bears made a powerful concerted attack on the market in the final hour. They offered prices down by rapid steps without meeting any effective support, taking the market away from the bulls who were eagerly taking their profits.

The relapse from the high point was very violent in some stocks and the level of the whole market was carried well under Saturday's. The violence of the decline invited some quick profit taking by the bears, whose covering in them caused a sharp rally, but the general tone was weak at the close.

The bond market was active and broad, but price changes were irregular. U. S. bonds were all unchanged.

Asks for a Divorce.

In the court of Common Pleas of this county Lulu Work asks for a divorce from her husband, George M. Work. She states that they were married in March, 1893, and that they have one child, a daughter, born in July, 1893. She further claims that for three years last past he has been willfully absent from her and has been guilty of gross neglect of duty, failing and neglecting to provide for her and her child.

Foreign Political Situation

From the German Capital.

—AS VIEWED—

By Associated Press.

Berlin, April 22.—Regarding foreign politics, sentiment in Germany is rather despondent just now. Among the well informed the impression prevails that while the Dreibund's renewal act at this time is assured, Italy nevertheless, is regarded suspiciously and it is the opinion that there are some disagreeable surprises in store for Germany because of Italy's foreign policy, in spite of the Dreibund, and in the face of official denials here. It is considered that Italy will insist on the alteration of certain paragraphs in the Dreibund agreement, and it is also certain that Italy's approach with France is regarded here unfavorably.

Germany is dissatisfied with Italy because she has been a steady loser in the Italo-German commercial treaty, and Italy's inability to assist Germany in her lately inaugurated world policy which the emperor earnestly pushes. It is also said that the young Italian King harbors little sympathy for Germany, owing to the influence of his education and more recently of his Slav wife, whose sympathy is altogether Russian. Leading papers this week contained articles on the subject. The Post says: "The efforts to disrupt harmony of the Dreibund powers are futile."

Prince Hohenlohe, since his return to Berlin, has told several leading persons that it was Field Marshal Count Von Waldersee more than Count Von Buelow who urged the Emperor to take an uncompromising attitude against China and who especially advised these phases of German-

China policy, which harmed interests with other powers; namely, insisting that severest punishment be meted out against Chinese government advisors. It is the wish of the Emperor that the Del Pass Canal Bill. This wish will not likely be fulfilled, as the Conservatives and Agrarians are still vigorously opposed to it. The Emperor or Count Von Buelow seem, however, to have made up their minds to stand this shilly-shallying no longer, and international political changes will surely arise from their attitude.

German official circles adhere to the opinion that Germany will in no case interfere in the Nicaraguan canal matter. In regard to the meat inspection law it is learned that the portion of the law bearing upon imports cannot possibly be carried out before October and probably later, and that part bearing on inland provisions not before 1902. The Emperor is wholly dissatisfied with the new police arrangements for his safety, which he considers to be impractical and ostentatious. At the Emperor's wish a new system is now being worked out which will afford him required safety without such enormous showy arrangements.

Dispatches to "Vorwaerts" tell of the demonstration at the funeral of a Jewish mechanic in Wilna, (a city of Russia and the capital of the Government of the same name.) A number of persons were injured by the Cossacks, and sixty-seven arrests were made. At Minsk, also in Russia, houses were searched and eight persons arrested for alleged complicity in the plot against the Russian Government.

Handsome Buildings Erected on the Exposition Grounds.

Owing to the peculiar and allied interests of the Grange in Agricultural and Live Stock matters it has been definitely determined to locate the Grange building just east of the Dairy building on the Pan-American Exposition grounds. In the regular classification of the Exposition Farmers' organizations are recognized in the Division of Agriculture.

Superintendent Converse has taken this matter up with the different Grange officials in the various states and also with the National Grange. A Pan-American Grange Committee has been appointed in every state, with the state master as chairman of such committee. These committees are working assiduously in their own interests as well as the interests of the Exposition, particularly with reference to the divisions that are of the greatest importance to them.

The plan is to run frequent excursions from the various states where the order is strongest, and this is particularly true with reference to the Eastern, Middle and Central Western states. At a meeting of the New York State Grange held at Poughkeepsie a resolution was passed placing in the hands of the Executive Committee of the State Grange the matter of caring for the headquarters established on the Exposition grounds and of assisting the different committees whose duty it is to impart such information as shall be of interest to the visiting members of the order and receive them in such a way as shall reflect great credit upon the hospitality of the New York State Grange with reference to the visiting members from other states.

The building from an architectural standpoint compares very favorably with the style of architecture which manifests itself in the various buildings of the Exposition. The plan of the building is such that the main floor is devoted to a large reception room, with smoking room, offices and checkroom conveniently located for the use of the members.

Superintendent Converse is constantly in receipt of letters from the Masters of the State Granges indicating that a widespread interest is being manifested in this matter. The New York State Grange has already begun preparations to have cheap excursions run to Buffalo from the different localities in the state, and it is thought advisable to have a State Grange day and which will be the latter part of June.

Oct. 10 is the day set aside as the National Grange day, and efforts will be made to have the greatest number of Grangers from the various states attend the Exposition at this particular time, and it is confident that from the number of Grangers, the total number being over a million, more than one-half will visit the Pan-American Exposition some time during its progress.

LECTURE WINS MONEY.

Army Chaplain Makes Plea for Anglo-American Church in Philippines and Is Given $20,000.

An army chaplain the other night delivered a $20,000 lecture. He is Chaplain C. C. Pierce, who is on duty at Fort Monroe, Va., and recently returned from the Philippines, where he worked with great fidelity, and was in charge, in addition to other duties, of the identification of the dead. He established a system which has been of great advantage to the government. Since his return he has received a large number of invitations to lecture, but the serious illness of his wife and his conscientious regard for his duties at Fort Monroe have compelled him to decline such requests.

The war department authorities have been willing that he should lecture on the conditions in the Philippines. On Monday night he lectured on the army and the Philippines before the Church club in Philadelphia. A day or two after he received a letter from a gentleman, who, with his wife, attended the lecture, and who stated that they proposed to give $20,000 to be applied to the Anglo-American church which was organized by Chaplain Pierce at Manila more than two years ago and which is deserving of public support in this country.

AMERICAN WEDS COUNTESS.

Colonel John M. Read's Bride Was Miss. Alis De Foras, Daughter of Count De Foras.

Announcement was made at Albany, N. Y., the other day of the marriage of Col. John Meredith Read to Countess Alis De Foras, Mlle. De Foras is the daughter of Count Amédée De Foras of the Castle of Thuyet, in Savoy, France. Count De Foras was for many years the grand marshal of the court of Bulgaria and a great political power in that country. He resigned the position when the child of the prince was forced to become a member of the Greek church, as he represented the Catholic party. He afterward retired to the castle of Thuyet, where he devoted himself to his books until his death.

Col. Read is the son of Gen. John Meredith Read, adjutant general at the outbreak of the civil war, consul general of this country to France during the Franco-German war and commune and acting consul general for Germany; then minister to Greece, in which post he distinguished himself. His grandfather, John Meredith Read, LL. D., was chief justice and one of the most distinguished lawyer-jurists of Pennsylvania.

MONUMENT TO GEN. HARRISON

Steps Taken at Indianapolis to Honor the Memory of the Late Ex-President.

A systematic movement was inaugurated at Indianapolis, Ind., the other day for honoring Benjamin Harrison with a public monument. The Commercial club, of which Gen. Harrison was a member, will act in the matter as a body, and it is understood that the board of trade and other civic bodies will join in the movement.

It is intended that the monument shall represent the sentiments of all the people of the state, and not the members of any political party. The first suggestion was for a statue to be placed near the soldiers' monument in Monument place, but the park is already crowded, and it is now proposed that it be erected in front of the new federal building, which will be begun in a short time. It is believed that congress will make an appropriation to aid in erecting the monument.

GRANDVIEW!

A Word to the Wise is Sufficient.

Grandview possesses all the good qualities that we have claimed for it and more. It is delightfully located, commanding a fine view of all the City, has all city conveniences and there is not a more healthy place in Marietta to live.

These lots are selling very fast and there are but seven left unsold in the whole addition. They range in price from $125.00 to $200.00 each. They are bound to double in value this spring and will make a good investment for the purchasers. Don't work your life out at a bench or store just for a pittance, but bring up what money you have laid away in a drawer to us and if you have not enough to pay for a lot in full we will give you time on the balance. If you want to make money you have to invest and this is a chance to invest where you will make more money on $150 invested than you can possibly save in a year on a salary.

The contemplated site for the new reservoir for the water works is just back of Grandview and as soon as it is built there will be a fine driveway through Grandview leading to it. Dozens of houses are going up all around this addition and several are to be built in Grandview this spring. Delays are dangerous—make up your mind to make some money and come and see us at once. We are ready at any time to drive you up there. Remember the name and number.

WHITE MAN TURNS BLACK.

An Indiana Farmer's Remarkable Case Mystifies the Most Expert Physicians.

Frank Keplinger, of Union township, Wells county, Ind., is puzzling the physicians. Mr. Keplinger is a farmer and up to two years ago was of fair complexion and in complete health. He then noticed that his skin, from crown to sole, was beginning to turn dark. His appetite failed, he lost half his weight. In alarm he consulted numerous specialists. Many remedies were used without effect and the color deepened until he is now almost as dark as a negro.

The specialists have failed to diagnose the case and have given him up to die. Mr. Keplinger is barely able to walk and considers his case hopeless. The case is said by the physicians to be without precedent.

REMOVE STOMACH OF PATIENT

This Delicate Operation Again Successfully Performed at Hospital in Brooklyn.

Another of the rare operations in surgical science, the excision of the human stomach, was performed the other day at the German hospital in Brooklyn by the surgeons of the staff. The patient was Jacob Wichman, a German, 68 years old, who sought relief in Berlin and other cities of Europe.

The man was on the operating table from eight o'clock till 11 o'clock, and the operation was viewed by some of the most eminent physicians of Manhattan and Brooklyn. Wichman was under the influence of anesthetics. The patient will be fed liquid food which has been predigested.
